1. ABOUT THE GLOBE INTERNATIONAL CENTER

SHORT INTRODUCTION

Globe International Center (GIC) is a non-profit, non-membership and tax exempted non-governmental organization based in Ulaanbaatar, the capital Mongolia. It was founded in March 1999. It GIC is managed by an independent Board consisting of five members. It has ten skilled and dedicated staff. GIC is a member of three international organizations: IFEX, the global network defending and promoting free expression, Global Forum for Media Development (GFMD) and the Asian Forum for Human Rights and Development (Forum-Asia). In September 2021, it became a member of the civil society coalition on Information and Democracy. Since its establishment, GIC has implemented around 185 human rights-related projects within its strategic programs.

MISSION AND VISION

Mission: To sustain Mongolian democracy and civil society through spreading power of information and knowledge.

Vision: To establish a democratic culture with informed and empowered citizens

STRATEGIC CONCEPT AND STRATEGIC GOAL

Informed and knowledgeable people are powerful, thus, they are able to participate in governmental affairs and contribute to sustainable development and social progress. Information is fundamental to knowledge. The public's right to enjoy free expression and access to information is essential to consolidating and developing a democratic, civil and healthy society which respects human rights and truly serves the public.

GIC's strategic goal is to promote the public's access to information using all possible means of information and knowledge dissemination, including online and traditional media, publications, art, and ICT.

TOOLS

- Advocacy/lobbying;
- Monitoring/research;
- Publications;
- Studies/reports;
- Traditional and online media campaigns;
- Capacity building;
- Stakeholder discussions and workshops;
- Conferences and public events;
- Arts events;
- Audio-visual contents (videos, infographics, podcasts PSAs, spots);
- Social media (Facebook, Twitter, YouTube);
